Marcus Brown

Marcus Brown joined our company in 1999 in Shelby, NC, hauling boxes for Smurfit Stone and now he is one of the hardest working CVOs for Lexington, NC, as evidenced by him being our first 2 Million Mile Safe Driving Honoree in 2018. Marcus exudes professionalism – when he is working, he is totally focused – he is a great communicator, always neatly dressed, competent, reliable and service oriented. Marcus has an easy demeanor and is always willing to help in any way he can. Marcus loves talking about his family, especially his wife, Daphne. George Purvis was one of our inaugural Million Mile Honorees in 2010 and is our second Two Million Mile honoree. George is more than a consummate professional, he's also a good businessman. He is known as a problem-solving leader. He's not only one of our most reliable CVOs, he is always willing to help, he knows each of his customers, and he is safety and service focused. He's the guy people are going to call - whether a customer, fleet manager or another driver - when someone needs help. His experiences have provided him with countless tales of his travels over the road and his coworkers are easily caught up in the entertainment of his stories. George has a passion for wheeled vehicles - when he isn't on the road in his rig, he enjoys riding motorcycles and four-wheelers with his grandchildren, as well as tinkering with old cars. George is a personable family man, and enjoys spoiling his wife, Dee Ann, with warm, tropical vacations, as often as possible.

When Eduardo Galan was a child, he dreamed of becoming a professional driver – he has always loved big trucks. He has spent the past 22 years as a CVO and his past 14 years with Brown have demonstrated the consummate professional that he is – dedicated to safety and service. Eduardo also loves his family time; he comes from a family of four sisters, which now has grown to include six nieces and three nephews. He and his wife, Rosaura, have two children. When he takes time off, he enjoys playing sports with his family, and is especially passionate about soccer.
